Christmas Office Icebreaker Cards

Cut on the borders. Draw a card. Passing is always welcome.

01

Name a winter snack you would add to an imaginary office cafe.

02

What would you name a team of gift-wrapping robots?

03

Which everyday office object deserves a tiny festive hat?

04

Invent a cheerful title for a December team newsletter.

05

What would a snow globe of your ideal workspace contain?

06

Which color would you choose for a completely new holiday decoration?

07

Describe an imaginary festive desk accessory in five words.

08

What task would you give a very helpful paper snowflake?

Christmas Office Icebreaker Cards

Cut on the borders. Draw a card. Passing is always welcome.

09

Choose a soundtrack for sorting a mountain of greeting cards.

10

What would you put in a break-room box of small comforts?

11

Invent a silly award for a printer that finally cooperates.

12

Which fictional animal should deliver the office invitations?

13

What would you name a warm drink created for this team?

14

Describe a winter postcard you would enjoy receiving.

15

What short creative activity would fit a ten-minute team break?

16

Which ordinary object could inspire an unusual table decoration?

Christmas Office Icebreaker Cards

Cut on the borders. Draw a card. Passing is always welcome.

17

Invent a friendly greeting for a team on a space station.

18

What would make a virtual festive background amusing?

19

Choose one shape for a giant window decoration.

20

What would a calendar designed by penguins look like?

21

Invent a name for a meeting room inside a gingerbread house.

22

What small detail makes an event invitation easy to understand?

23

Suggest a quiet alternative to a noisy party game.

24

What would you put on a welcome sign for a new teammate?